Emeritus Professor Jack Martin, former Director of the St Vincent's Institute and renown internationally in the field of endocrinology, particularly that of calcium regulation and tumors of bone, will open this year's meeting.

Leading experts from Australia, France and Italy will share ideas significant to managing sarcoma but and doing it better in 2011!

Dinner on the Saturday night will be held at the prestigious Melbourne Club: this is a rare opportunity to visit this historic venue.

I look forward to seeing you all at this year's Annual Sarcoma Conference, jointly brought to you from the ASG and ASSG.

Dr Gerard Powell. Chair. ASG
