

ANNUAL PROGRESS REPORT FORM

Progress Reports are due by 31 AUGUST each year, on completion of your project and two years after the completion of your research.

Please submit progress report to research@aoa.org.au

Date of Award
Title of Research Project
Date Last Report Submitted
Date This Report Submitted
Responsible Investigator
Title	Surname	First Name
Department
Institution
Main research objectives (as detailed in your application)	Milestones (yet to commence / in progress / completed)

Most important research finding(s)

Please state, in less than five dot points, your most important research findings – USING NON-TECHNICAL LANGUAGE. This information may be used for AOA Research Foundation Fundraising Appeals to the general public.

Publications (which have gone to press in previous calendar year)

Please use the 'Vancouver Style' as adopted by the Medical Journal of Australia and many others and outlined in Med J Aust 1991; 155: 197-201

1. Wonsley J. The satisfaction of producing difficult specifications for secretaries. J Secretarial Practices 1989; 12: 592-599.
2. Turpin J, Wonsley J, Adams S. The history of manuscript writing. Manuscript writing 1991; 5: 50-51

Presentations for previous calendar year (conference, city, date)Other notable achievements for previous calendar year (including patents filed, major competitive grants obtained, awards received)Has this research project now been completed?

YES

NO